The Ceramics Studio

Wednesday & Saturday at Casula Powerhouse Ceramic Studio

Happy New Year to All let's hope the year ahead is good to everyone, it's exciting to be back in the newly renovated studio and I think the year ahead we can produce lots of new and exciting art works. We are planning some new and exciting demos throughout the year; yes the monthly free demos are coming back.

The first Wednesday of the month (bi monthly) March, May, July, September & November 10.30 to 11:30 am

Then the First Saturday of the Month (bi monthly) April, June, August, October 10:30 to 11:30am

These demos will focus on a variety of skills and techniques I have learnt over my 38years as a ceramic artist and am happy to pass on.

February Demonstration

Demonstration – well a 'show and tell' really, at Chipping Norton Community Centre, Small Hall, on 16th February, 2023, is planned to be with Carla Hananiah from Jasco Pty Ltd of Kingsgrove.

Jasco, are the Australian agents for a wide range of stationery, art, and ancillary products. Many are well-known, and well-used – the 'tools of our trade' really, including: Winsor & Newton, Liquitex, Reeves, Conti, Fabriano, Arches, Jasart and Raffine brands, to note those most familiar to us. Indeed, those products which Jasco distribute through your preferred retail art shop.

Far too many brands to explore in just 2 hours. The suggestion is that Carla's will present a materials focussed demonstration including a wide variety of techniques using Winsor & Newton watercolour, gouache and Professional acrylic. And some mediums will also be included.

Carla, has been the Resident Artist at Jasco since 2011 and is an established artist in her own right. Her paintings depict vast stretches of New Zealand and Australian mountain and sky in that 'magic hour' - at dawn or dusk when unreal and powerful, dramatic slanting sunlight moves fleetingly across the landscape.

She holds a BFA, MA and MFA by Research from the University of New South Wales, and has been the recipient of the Mosman Art Prize Viewer's Choice Award and the Mosman Art Prize on three occasions, the Hornsby Art Prize, the Blake Prize Society's John Coburn Emerging Artist Award, the Blacktown Art Prize of two occasions, the Wavery Art Prize on three occasions and the Winsor & Newton Start Your Studio Scholarship.

Dear LAS artists and friend

The weekly groups are just about to kick-off for 2023 (the Ceramics group started 18 January). Hope you all had a good break and made some beautiful memories with the ones you love. If there has been any sadness for any of you over the break, I hope 2023 will treat you well.

Haven't been creative over the break but have been catching up on LAS admin...it's OK. 2023 is going to be a busy year and we need to start preparing. Previously I mentioned we would be looking at having a few more exhibitions/competitions, and it looks as if (at this stage) we will have an online competition in the first half of the year and the LAS Annual Exhibition launch on the 28 October. Trying to get one more exhibition up and running but finding a suitable venue is proving problematic...so still trying.

Speaking of exhibitions, by the time you read this the FLIGHT exhibition will have had its launch (2PM Saturday 21 January) but it will be on until mid-June, so do try and get out to Casula Powerhouse Arts Centre (CPAC) to see it. We have four LAS artists included in the FLIGHT Exhibition, Linda Brescia, Rebecca Brady, Pamela Rodoreda & Chris Hunter.

If you do have an Instagram or Facebook account, (please) 'follow' and 'like' LAS on

Instagram... <https://www.instagram.com/lassydney/>

Facebook... <https://www.facebook.com/lassydney>

Any suggestions for content/posts are always welcome. Anything you feel which might be of interest to other LAS members, such as Art Prizes/competitions, Artists' Callouts, or if you are exhibiting anywhere yourself, I would love to hear about it. Sorry no personal sales plugs but if you are exhibiting or have a story or achieved an art related award then absolutely would love to share with the LAS community to lend support and celebrate your achievements. I'm very approachable: LiverpoolArtSocietyPresident@gmail.com

When one gives support, support tends to be returned (when least expected); I believe that to be true.

Incidentally, finally managed to get access to our Facebook page (it's been inactive for eighteen months). The wonderful young man that resolved the issue wishes to remain anonymous, but I am very grateful. It's been an ordeal but all good now.

Chris

LAS CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON/ PARTY 2022

A very successful Liverpool Art Society (LAS) Christmas Luncheon & Old Masters Competition were held on Sunday 4 December 2022 @ Cabramatta Bowling Club. Received glowing feedback from attendees. Well done to our social coordinators Jenny Phillips and Anne Picalovski for organising and hosting a super enjoyable event. We had a cap on 50 but ended up with close to 60 before turning people away. RSVP early next year!
