PRESIDENT'S POST

As we come to the conclusion of the most challenging of years there are further Covid influenced changes. To the delivery of your works for the 23rd LAS Annual Exhibition; to the exhibition itself with an 'on-line' launch at 11.00 am on Saturday 21st November; and likely to the collection next year.

Sadly, the assembled excitement, the looks of unexpected 'wow' will be directed to a computer screen this year. Missing too, the very personal 'well done' face to face and 'congratulations'. Hopefully there will be another time and opportunity to more publicly recognize this year's successful exhibitors, and those LAS members who have completed 10, 15 and 20 years of membership with your Society.

We are assured that the exhibition will be open from Sunday 22nd, as planned for your viewing through to Wednesday 27th January next year. Although, the numbers who populate the Hopper and Switch galleries will need to meet the CPAC Covid plan. And the Marsden Gallery will be hung with the works of our dear departed friend, our colleague Gil Farla.

"A reminder that your Society still needs a Newsletter editor and an Organizer for Demonstrations."

The last, and this, edition of the Newsletter has been undertaken by Di and while Daniel Long has offered to assist with the actual putting together of the images, articles, news items etc. we need someone who collects the material for the five newsletters each year, for Daniel to then apply his artistic layout skills.

The Print shop at CPAC then, very generously prints and assembles, before LAS 'helping hands' do the folding, envelope inserting and address labelling and postage stamp sticking.

Demonstrations provide an opportunity to learn, to see another approach/ another way, explore new and different techniques and materials; who would have thought 'scratch board' would have been such an interesting, exciting, extension of the skill of drawing! But for these to occur we need someone willing to arrange, the usually four occasions each year, when a visiting artist provides that insight. We have a folder of possible areas/ topics and the details of some within Sydney who share their own leading experience, their artistic journey with others.

Indeed, for LAS to prosper, the sharing and communication via our Newsletter and the opportunity to experience different mediums and methods are as essential in our personal enjoyment of art, as is that you experience, when the last final 'tweak' from your hands brings the personal artistic journey for 'that piece' to a conclusion.

And so, as we come to the closing weeks of our disrupted year of creativity – from my home to you and yours, the very best of wishes for a happy Christmas and a healthier and safer 2021.

– John Tregonning

Welcome and many thanks to Daniel Long who has enthusiastically volunteered to manage the design element of the LAS newsletters. His dedication is evident in this issue of the newsletter so don't hesitate to let him know. However the position of Editor is still vacant.

SCHOLARSHIP EXHIBITION

Gil won last year's scholarship which provided the opportunity, the finance & the guidance of CPAC staff to develop her own solo exhibition.

This will be on display in the Marsden Gallery, CPAC from 22 November until 17 January.

Gil was inspired by her "garden, its surrounds and its many creatures." She found her garden "a refuge to escape the harsh urban jungle and the pressures it brings,"

The exhibition is also a memorial to Gil who sadly passed away this year after 12 years serving LAS.

Further promotional material is to come shortly. Bellbird will be open for snacks, drinks or a meal.

LiverPool Art Society Needs YOU!

Get involved. Enjoy new experiences to learn and add to your C.V.

POSITIONS VACANT – Newsletter Editor which involves collecting and collating information & items for each issue, liaising with the Design Editor, liaising with Council Print Shop, collecting & distributing the printed copies.

Demonstration Co-ordinator which involves contacting artists from a supplied list to organise bookings, providing promotional material for the newsletter, organising payment & Thank-Yous for the artist.

LAS provides help, support & guidance for both positions.

CANCELLATION of OLD MASTER'S & CHRISTMAS PARTY

Due to covid restrictions, the Old Master's Competition & Christmas Party will not be held this year. The restriction on numbers and sharing of food, unfortunately, make this impossible to manage.

The Management Committee considered a number of possibilities but none met O.H.&S regulations. However many of the Weekly Groups are organising their own lunches if you want to join them.

Another option is to form your own group and visit CPAC to view the LAS exhibition and dine at the Bellbird (bookings limited to 30).

ANNUAL EXHIBITION

This year, due to covid restrictions on numbers, the Launch will be on-line only and can be viewed at 11.00 am on Saturday 21 November.

Details will be sent later re the log-on link.

The Launch will involve a pre-recorded announcement of all the winners with, hopefully, images of the winning works.

LAS is currently examining the logistics of how to physically present the awards to the winners and whether a small public presentation is possible.

CPAC and the Exhibition will be open for viewing by visitors after 21 November until 27 January. Although numbers entering CPAC will be restricted to maintain Covid spacing, members could organise group visits provided they contact CPAC renumbers. Bellbird will be open for dining as long as bookings are made.

Although membership numbers have declined considerably this year, there are 168 artworks entered in the exhibition which has pleased the LAS Management Committee. 20 of these are Youth artworks and 148 are from adult members so it promises to be a diverse, exciting and talented exhibition. And as usual the judge's decisions are sure to elicit all the fun of debate, discussion and differing opinions.

Enjoy.

Many Thanks

to

Pamela Rodoreda and John Tregonning

For the hours of work they have spent organising the Annual Exhibition – developing the on-line entry forms, collating entries, taking phone calls, handling headaches and so much more.

They have made the exhibition, not just possible, but successful.
