Yolanda Seach

Yolanda began drawing and painting in her childhood and has continued her artistic work since. After graduating with a Bachelor of Adult Education Degree (UWS) in 2000 she took up painting more seriously improving on her traditional oils and watercolour, then extending to acrylic and mixed media. She has a wide range of styles and subject matter, from technically accurate trains to humorous mixed media and naïve works, from traditional landscapes to contemporary florals, from subtle watercolours to acrylics with impact.

In 2003 Yolanda began entering local competitions and has won a number of firsts, seconds, thirds and numerous very highly commended, highly commended and commended awards. She has enjoyed giving demonstrations to art societies, has held two solo art exhibitions at the old White House in Castle Hill, two at Aberdoon House in Rouse Hill and three so far at her home gallery in Rouse Hill.

In 2006 Yolanda was a featured artist in the Blacktown Arts Centre "Travelling with Birds" exhibition and staged her first solo exhibition in the same year. Two of her works were published in the Australian Artist magazine in 2003 and 2004. Her work was published in Issue 81 Artist's Palette Magazine, with an Insight article and a demonstration painting and to her great delight her detailed painting of the Eastbrook Express (train) was on the cover.

In 2008, Yolanda donated her oil painting of the 1804 Battle of Vinegar Hill (NSW) to The Hills Shire Council's new Vinegar Hill Memorial Library in the Rouse Hill Town Centre. Graciously accepted by the Mayor, it now hangs there prominently. Since 2003 she has also donated over thirty paintings to various charitable causes.

In 2012 Yolanda started teaching art at Yolanda's roomy studio at home in Rouse Hill. Her students are a friendly mix of young through to retired people who love the journey of learning to draw and paint.

July Ceramic Demonstration

Indigenous Weaving

Kerry Brotherhood

A local proud Aboriginal woman Kerry is giving a demonstration on weaving using Lomandra grass and Raffia. The ancient art of weaving has been used as a method to create baskets and fishing nets. Long narrow strips of grasses are stitched together to form many different shapes and sizes.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS of the LIVERPOOL ART SOCIETY INC.

At the Annual General Meeting of the Liverpool Art Society Inc. (LAS) to be held on 21st August, 2021, at the Chipping Norton Community Centre, I will move a motion 'that the Constitution of LAS as Amended on 3rd December, 2015 be Amended'.

These further amendments consider and include changes to the Associations Incorporations Regulation of 2016, which replaces the 2009 Regulation, and uses as a guide the Model Constitution prepared by the NSW Department of Fair Trading.

A number of changes made to the regulation, and incorporated, reflect changes in technology, the holding of meetings in multiple locations, the holdings of meeting using meeting technology such as 'Zoom', and application for membership of LAS.

Other changes include:

- Removing the $5 application or joining fee
- Reduce the maximum size of the Committee from 15 elected members to a more manageable maximum of 10 elected members, and reducing the quorum to 3 members
- Reducing the quorum for General Meetings from 10 financial members to 5 financial LAS members
- Reflect the processing of Membership Applications
- That LAS does not have an office from which to conduct the affairs of the Society and its Membership.

A copy of the Constitution with the proposed deletions and proposed additions to the amended 2015 constitution will be available for your review from all of the weekly group leaders or requested via Liverpoolartsocietypresident@gmail.com.

APPRECIATE!

President's Report

Greetings all!

It's fabulous to be able to publicly thank and recognize the generosity of three more sponsors for this year's Annual Art Exhibition – Westfield Liverpool, for the major history prize, Melanie Gibbons, the Member for the state seat of Holsworthy with a new prize for young artists, and the Rotary Clubs of Liverpool (Liverpool, Liverpool Greenway, Liverpool West) with a new acquisition prize in memory of John Mula, one of their founding fathers, in this, Rotary's 100th year of service to the Australian community.

This edition of your bi-monthly newsletter is a little different, and we look forward to further innovations your editor, Anthony Barnett, brings to this important communication medium.

Indeed, this edition includes some important information with key dates relating to the annual exhibition including registration, the 'help' day, drop off, and the launch of this year's display of your artistic talents; details on ARTy pARTy to be held at CPAC on Sunday 25th July; details on the AGM and nomination form for Office Bearers and Committee for the coming LAS year; important details on proposed changes which amend our Constitution to be compliant with the Act.

I encourage your attention to all of the important announcements in this edition of your Newsletter, in particular in regard to the AGM, nominations for next year's Officers and Committee and the proposed changes to our Constitution.

April Demonstration Report By Linda Ferlazzo

Our April demo on portraiture by Rizwana Ahmed was well attended by an enthusiastic group wanting to learn how to improve their skills.

Rizwana prefers to paint from life instead of photos and managed to persuade Sue Drew to be her sitter because she said Sue had 'the prettiest face in the room'. Naturally we all agreed.

She wanted a profile so had Sue sitting side on, and proceeded once she was happy with the lighting, to draw the outline with her brush. Rizwana spoke about tonal values and how to look at the shapes, scrubbing in the background (negative space) to create the profile. She feels it is advantageous for beginners to do a black and white portrait using a pencil and shading to learn about tones. Her finished painting was a remarkable likeness and a lovely soft painting. We all came away inspired.

ARTy pARTy

Yes folks, 2021 has brought a return of the popular ARTy pARTy for the enjoyment of LAS members and their guests.

This year the gathering and display of your works will be held in the Performance Space at CPAC commencing at 1.00 pm on Sunday 25th July, with 'afternoon tea' nibbles part of the afternoon's activity.

Your attendance will attract the princely, and subsidized, sum of $15 for each member, and $15 for each guest. An additional $5 will see one example of your handiwork submitted for the critique of your colleagues. Hey, if the work won't fit in a 'carry on suitcase', its oversize.

The 'pot' to be awarded as a first, second, and third prize based on the number of votes awarded by those attending. We'll collect the $5 when you arrive, just in case you change your mind.

To secure your place please complete the slip below and return with the appropriate funds by to a committee member, your weekly group convener, or your Treasurer by 17th July. Note ; RSVP July 17th, 2021.
